

Seminar programme: Spanish Intensive Course Buenos Aires (1 or 2 weeks)

Language, work and society in Argentina (Bildungsurlaub Spanish course in Buenos Aires)

Provider: Vamos Academy Buenos Aires, Maipu 464, C1084 Buenos Aires (Recoleta), Argentina

Target group

Employees and trainees from Germany who need Spanish at work (clients, suppliers or colleagues in Spanish-speaking countries) and want to learn about work and society in Argentina. All levels from A1 (complete beginner) to C2, placed by a free level test.

Hours and timetable

30 teaching hours (60 minutes each) a week; the 2-week course has 60 hours. Monday to Friday, 9:30-13:30: 20 hours of General Spanish in a small group. Plus 10 hours a week of one-to-one "Spanish for work", scheduled flexibly with the teacher (usually in the afternoon). Levels follow the CEFR.

Learning goals

- Improve speaking, listening, reading and writing at your CEFR level
- Job-related communication: meetings, phone calls, emails, presentations
- Knowledge of work, the economy and society in Argentina, compared with Germany
- Intercultural skills for working with Spanish-speaking clients, suppliers and colleagues

Structure

Part	Hours	Content
Small group, Mon-Fri	20 h/week	General Spanish at your CEFR level: grammar, speaking, listening, vocabulary
9:30-13:30 One-to-one, scheduled flexibly	10 h/week	Spanish for work, rotating themes: work and the economy, Argentine society today, politics and administration, intercultural communication at work, a closing presentation with feedback

Week 2 (2-week course)

The one-to-one themes are applied to your own sector: vocabulary, a mock meeting, a short presentation. Ends with a written progress report.

Certificate

Certificate of attendance with course title, dates, lesson times, total hours (30 or 60) and level reached, signed by the school.

Recognition

Recognised as Bildungsurlaub in 14 German states (all except Bavaria and Saxony; Bavaria has no Bildungsurlaub law, Saxony's law starts in 2027). Status by state:

vamospanish.com/bildungsurlaub-spanish-courses-buenos-aires/ or on request.

As of October 2026.